S.R.O. 224, dated 11th June 1958.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 the President hereby directs that the following further amendments shall be made in the General Provident Fund, (Defence Services) Rules as amended from time to time:—

In the said Rules—

1. In sub-rule (1) of rule 7, after the proviso, the following further proviso shall be inserted namely:—

“Provided further that the nomination made by the subscriber in respect of any other Provident Fund to which he was subscribing before joining the Fund shall, if the amount to his credit in such other Fund has been transferred to his credit in the Fund, be deemed to be a nomination duly made under this rule until he makes a nomination in accordance with this rule.”

2. In sub-rule (1) of rule 13 after the proviso the following further proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided further that a subscriber who was previously subscribing to any other Provident Fund of the Central Government and whose subscriptions, together with interest thereon, have been transferred to his credit in this Fund under rule 32, shall also be allowed interest at 4 per cent, if he had been receiving that rate of interest under the rules of such other Fund under a provision similar to that of the first proviso to this rule.”

3. In rule 28, the following ‘Explanation’ shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Explanation.—A subscriber, other than one who is appointed on contract or one who has retired from service and is subsequently re-employed, with or without a break in service, shall not be deemed to quit the service, when he is transferred without any break in service to a new post under a State Government or in another department of the Central Government (in which he is governed by another set of Provident Fund Rules) and without retaining any connection with his former post. In such a case, his subscriptions together with interest thereon shall be transferred.—

- (a) to his account in the other Fund in accordance with the rules of that Fund, if the new post is in another department of the Central Government, or
- (b) to a new account under the State Government concerned, if the new post is under a State Government and the State Government consents, by general or special order, to such transfer of subscriptions and interest.”

4. After clause (b) of rule 32, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(c) If a Government servant who is a subscriber to any other non-Contributory Provident Fund of the Central Government is permanently transferred to pensionable service in a Department of the Central Government in which he is governed by these rules the amount of subscriptions together with interest thereon standing to his credit in such other fund on the date of transfer shall be transferred to his credit in the Fund.”

5. In Rule 32, the following Note shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Note.—The provisions of this rule do not apply to a subscriber who has retired from service and is subsequently re-employed with or without a break in service, or to a subscriber who was holding the former appointment on contract.”

6. In rule 32-A, the following Note shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Note.—The provisions of this rule do not apply to a subscriber who is appointed on contract or who has retired from service and is subsequently re-employed with or without a break in service in another post carrying contributory provident fund benefits.”

S. DEVANATH, Dy. Secy.
